Message from Dr. Jordan

What an exciting week at SCS as we celebrated two state championships from last weekend!

Three Important Items:

- We have designed several Christmas sweatshirt options for you to consider purchasing as we enter the Christmas season. Please click here to view the options and place your order. All proceeds from sales will go to our Love Offering.
- For our fall semester Annual Fund project, we are asking you to support our faculty/staff Love Offering. The Love Offering runs until December 4. If you would like to give, you can do so in the form of cash, check, or card. You can also use this link (if you give through the link, please designate your gift to the "Love Offering").
- Veterans Day Chapel is on November 10. SCS will be closed on November 11 (Veterans Day). Thank you, Veterans!

Two Good Things:

- Our volleyball team won the NCISAA 1A State Championship last Saturday, capping one of the most successful volleyball seasons in the history of SCS. Every SCS volleyball team won their respective championship this fall: 5/6, 7/8, JV team, and our varsity team.
- Our boys' soccer team won the NCISAA 1A State Championship last Saturday. Over the last three seasons, our boys' soccer team has competed in the State Championship game, winning two state titles (2024 & 2026) and finishing as the runner-up in another year (2025). We have the best 1A boys' soccer program in the state right now! To God be the glory for our two state championship teams!

One Thing God Showed Me:

- When I think about God's love, I typically refer to how I experience and better understand His love through various human relationships in my life (my wife, children, family, friends, etc.). However, I read John 17 this week and seven words jumped off the page unlike they ever have before: ". . . so that the world may know that you sent me and loved them even as you loved me" (Jn. 17:23). Jesus, the Son, is praying to the Father in John 17, and He says that the Father's love for us is on par with the love that He has for the Son. What an amazing reality!

It's an honor to partner with you! GO LIONS!

Message from Principal Corson

What another exciting week we had at SCS! We hope you had the opportunity to exercise your right to VOTE on Tuesday! Election Day provides a wonderful opportunity to talk with our students about the importance of civic responsibility and what it means to be an American citizen. These are valuable lessons that help shape the next generation of leaders!

🎤 ACSI Speech Meet

We are so proud of our elementary students! On Thursday morning, 41 students in grades 1–5 participated in our school-wide, ACSI-sponsored Speech Meet. Students were evaluated using a scoring rubric and earned ratings of Superior, Excellent, or Good. At the conclusion of the event, an awards ceremony was held, and students received medals recognizing their accomplishments. We are incredibly proud of each student who participated! It takes courage, preparation, and confidence to stand before an audience and share what you have learned. Way to go, SCS students!

🇺🇸 Veterans Day Chapel & Holiday Reminder

Please join us for our All-School Veterans Day Chapel on Tuesday, November 10. Our Elementary Student Government representatives will lead the pledges as we begin the service. This will be a special time to honor and recognize those who have served our country. A reminder that SCS will be closed for students and staff on Wednesday, November 11, in observance of Veterans Day. We also invite you to take a moment to visit our Veterans Day bulletin board located directly across from the elementary office. We are honored to recognize the family members of our SCS community who have sacrificed and served our country. To all our veterans and their families, thank you for your service, sacrifice, and dedication to our freedom! ❤️🤍💙

🥫 We are collecting aluminum tabs throughout the year to support the Ronald McDonald House. If you are able, we would love for your family to collect tabs and send them in with your student(s).

Please reach out if you have any questions or concerns with which I can help. Lastly, remember, choose JOY!

MESSAGE FROM PRINCIPAL MARTIN

Happy Friday Upper School Families,

I hope you are having a wonderful week! As we approach the weekend, I want to take a moment to reflect on our incredible achievements and look ahead to an important upcoming event.

First, congratulations to our high school volleyball and soccer teams! What an exciting week it has been celebrating both teams bringing home State Championship titles this past Saturday. We are so proud of our student-athletes, coaches, and school community for their dedication and support. The middle school 5/6 and 7/8 volleyball also won conference titles.

Looking ahead to next week, please keep the following important dates and events in mind:

- Veterans Day Special Chapel: On Tuesday, November 10th at 1:30 PM, we will host a special Veterans Day Chapel. We cordially invite all veterans in our SCS family and community to join our students and staff so we can honor and celebrate your service.
- Special Dress Day: For this Veterans Day Chapel, I am challenging upper school students to "dress for success." While we enjoy our dress down days, we want to show special honor on this occasion:
  - Young men: Shirt and tie
  - Young ladies: School appropriate dresses or professional attire.
- No School: A reminder that there will be no school on Wednesday, November 11th in observance of Veterans Day.

Thank you for your ongoing partnership and support. I hope you all have a safe, restful, and refreshing weekend!

Message from Prayer Warriors

We invite everyone who has a heart for prayer to join the PTF/SCS Prayer Warriors on Friday mornings at 8:00AM in the Upper School Conference Room.

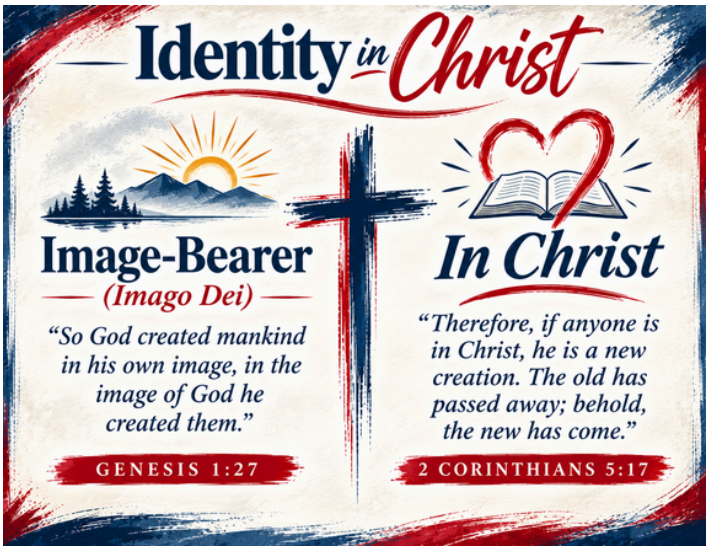

IDENTITY IN CHRIST - "I" (IMAGE OF GOD/IN CHRIST)

Before you ever earned a grade, won a competition, or impressed anyone, you were already loved by God. Not because of what you did, but because of whose you are.

You bear the image of God. That dignity does not rise and fall with performance or failure. It was placed in you intentionally, by a God who made you on purpose.

Through faith, something even deeper becomes true. You are not just made in His image. You are in Christ, which means you are united with Him, covered by His righteousness, and permanently positioned in relationship with the Father. The old version of you, the one defined by mistakes, insecurities, and the opinions of others, does not get the final word. A new creation has taken its place.

The world will keep trying to define you by what you produce. Your identity is not a question you have to keep answering. It has already been answered, by God, at creation, and confirmed again at the cross. So walk into every situation knowing this: you are an image-bearer and are in Christ. That is not just theology. That is the truest thing about you.
